Water Department Report

Mayor Danny Morcom stated that the city needs something for after hours so that people can reach someone in case of an emergency. He has been talking to a company called TextMyGov. The information on it was given to all the council members. The council wanted to review it and discuss it at the next meeting.

New Business

Mayor Danny Morcom said that a resident wanted to add a streetlight on Dogwood Lane and that it would not cost us for the installation of it. Joyce Sniff pointed out that there were potholes on Yancey Road. Mayor Morcom said that he would check on them.

Blake Arnold said that he had a noise complaint. Mayor Morcom said that the Sheriff's Dept would handle that. He also had a complaint about a car that was parked on the side of the road in Creekside and a pine tree root buckling up the road. Joyce Sniff stated that there was a tree on Yancey Road doing the same thing.

At 6:40 pm, a motion to adjourn the meeting from Norma Craddock, seconded by Joel Kriner.
